

BELLE FAMILIA

Belle Familia foil wrapped margarine spread is a texturised margarine made from blended vegetable fats and oils. This product is suitable as breakfast spread, baking, for cooking and shallow frying. Specially formulated for the consumers preferring softness and creamy taste at breakfasts,

Belle Familia is an indispensable margarine for all families.

Belle Familia, like Belle Premium, retains its natural light yellow colour even after frying and preserves the natural taste of fried meals. It may be used in all types of fried, cold or hot meals and salads conveniently. Marked for its quality, lightness and flavour, it is also healthier since it contains zero cholesterol

In other applications, Belle Familia aids the formulation of stable aerated batters and is primarily designed for use in making top quality cakes, cookies, sweet bread, donuts, and may be used as a substitute for butter in bakery applications.

Belle Familia is made from non hydrogenated fats.
